

TRADE UNIONS (AMENDMENT) DECREE 1996

Decree No. 4

[5th January 1996]

Commencement.

WHEREAS it has been observed that since 1986 when the trade unions were restructured from 71 to 41, there existed certain overlapping and duplication in the objectives of the trade unions which has resulted in numerous court cases;

AND WHEREAS the Nigerian Labour Congress acting for and on behalf of the 41 trade unions affiliated to it since 1989 expressed the desire to restructure the trade unions to a reasonable number to redress the obvious lapses;

AND WHEREAS in keeping with the principle of voluntarism as contained in the International Labour Organisation Convention No. 87 on the Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise, the Nigerian Labour Congress between 1990-1992 set up a number of committees on the restructuring exercise, the reports of which were further subjected to thorough scrutiny by the three social partners on labour matters before a conclusion was reached;

AND WHEREAS there now exists the urgent need to remove all the anomalies in the present structure of trade unions caused by duplication, amorphous structures and overlapping jurisdiction in order to eradicate the numerous intra union disputes and litigations;

AND WHEREAS the Federal Military Government is desirous of assisting the trade unions to overcome the anomalies to achieve internal cohesion, be more viable and capable of standing on their own without recourse to internal or foreign aid;

NOW THEREFORE, THE FEDERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT hereby decrees as follows:-

Amendment of Cap 437 LFN.
